

Here are a few tools available to assist you getting the word out.

Hootsuite is a free app that helps you get the word out across several platforms. It's free but there are other options that'll cost you $$$.

Tweetdeck is not an app (tweetdeck.twitter.com) but extremely effective when you want to schedule your tweets in advance.

If you're looking to go LIVE, you have other options...

Facebook Live can bring an event to your mobile device.

Twitter has a LIVE feature through the Periscope app (it's free).
